Memo to the Media

This book has been prepared for members of the working media who will cover the Pitt football team during the 1989 season, as well as for Pitt fans, friends and alumni. Additions to the contents of this book; changes in personnel, plans and policy; and supplemental information will be provided prior to and during the football season by the sports information department. If you desire additional information, please contact:

Sports Information Department, University of Pittsburgh, P.O. Box 7436, Pittsburgh, PA 15213. Phone: (412) 648-8240.

The office is located on the third floor of Pitt Stadium, via the Gate 2 entrance.

Interview Policy: If a media member wishes to interview a player or coach of the University of Pittsburgh football team, contact the sports information department in advance. Every attempt will be made to fulfill a request as efficiently and quickly as possible.

To interview Head Coach Mike Gottfried, contact the sports information office. Please allow at least one day's notice. Coach Gottfried will conduct a weekly press conference at noon on Tuesdays in the Eberman-Prosser Athletic Conference Room, located at Gate 2 of Pitt Stadium. Generally, there will be one or two players and an assistant coach available at the press conference.

Player interviews will be set up only by the sports information department. Please allow at least one day's notice or more, if possible. There will be no player interviews after Wednesday evening in game weeks. Players' phone numbers will not be released.

Game Tickets: In accordance with recommendations from the Associated Press Sports Editor's Association, complimentary tickets will not be available to the media. Those wishing to purchase tickets are urged to contact the sports information department, which will accept and place orders to help ensure the best possible seating.

Credentials: All requests for working press, photo, and broadcast credentials for Pitt's 1989 home games should be made in writing on company letterhead at least two weeks before the game in question. Direct all requests in writing to Linda Venzon, Sports Information Director, University of Pittsburgh, P.O. Box 7436, Pittsburgh, PA 15213. All credentials that cannot be mailed will be left at the press will-call window outside Gate 11 at Pitt Stadium.

Because of the demand for credentials and the limited space in the press box, media organizations covering the visiting school on a regular basis will receive top priority. All other credentials for print media will be issued on the basis of circulation. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a daily sports show will receive consideration for credentials.

Telephones: The Pitt Sports Information Office supplies an adequate number of telephones in the press box available for general use by visiting writers. Credential requests should indicate interest in the use of these phones. Personal phone lines at assigned seats can be ordered at individual seats by contacting Lois Mills at Bell of Pennsylvania at (412) 633-6907. The telephone number in the press box is (412) 648-9172.

Spotters/Runners: Aides can be provided at a fee payable to the individual hired at a rate commensurate with the duties involved. Please make requests known at least one week prior to the game.

Photographers: Field photographers must check in along the stadium wall inside Gate 3 prior to the game and must show proper identification and the correct game credential to receive sideline armbands. Speed cards will be available there.

NCAA rules limit shooting to outside the restraining line enclosing the playing field and outside the 30-yard line.

Locker Room Policy: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms after a game is controlled by each school. There is absolutely no admission to the Pitt locker room before or during a game.

COACHES

Head Coach Mike Gottfried

Mike Gottfried, a product of Crestline, Ohio, a town of 5,000 churchgoers and sports fans three hours from Pittsburgh, abandoned the idea of being a priest in fifth grade.

It wasn't that he was ignoring the values of family, faith, and hard work that had been instilled in him as a youth. And he didn't surprise many by picking a whistle instead of a clerical collar to wear around his neck. After all, this was the grade school youngster who organized the games at recess; who put all the best athletes on his team until the nuns caught on and made him even the sides; and who read The Knife-Throwing Story five times.

He made up his mind that he wanted to be a coach, and he learned early to go after what you want — don't wait. That drive was a catalyst for his rapid move up the coaching ladder, during which he was recognized as one of the forerunners of a young and energetic generation of college coaches — innovative and marketable. His progression culminated in December of 1985, when Mike Gottfried was named Pitt's 29th head football coach. Then in April of 1988 the University of Pittsburgh reaffirmed its conviction that Mike Gottfried was a winner — on the field and off — by announcing it had signed him to a new long-term, multi-year contract.

"We feel strongly that in Coach Mike Gottfried we have the ideal person to provide the leadership and direction necessary to ensure that Pitt remains one of the elite football programs in the country," Pitt President Dr. Wesley Posvar said at the time.

"Coach Gottfried is a person with high integrity, and he embodies the value systems that are important to the University of Pittsburgh. Our football program is in the right hands."

At Pitt, Gottfried has rejuvenated a Panther football program that had stalled prior to his arrival. His record with the Panthers is 19-14-1 during three consecutive non-winning seasons and features two wins each over Notre Dame, Penn State and West Virginia. His 1987 squad had an 8-4 record capped by an invitation to the Bluebonnet Bowl. It was the Panthers' first bowl appearance since 1983. Three of his freshman recruiting classes have been rated among the nation's finest. Gottfried has coached six All-Americans and eight top NFL draft picks during his brief tenure.

Gottfried, 45, is recognized among his peers as an excellent coach — tireless, organized, innovative and adaptive. He was the head coach of the East Squad in the East-West Shrine game and was an assistant coach in 1986 and 1987. He will coach in the 1989 Japan Bowl. In 1987 he convinced legendary Pro Football Hall-of-Famer Sid Gillman to help the program by volunteering his time for much of the season.

"The discipline he's brought to this squad is absolutely terrific," said Gillman at the time.

Known as one of the most innovative offensive minds in college football, Gottfried has lectured extensively throughout the country and counts the Dallas Cowboys among his past audiences. He has won at Pitt by emphasizing the passing game (John Congemi, with 2,048 yards in 1986, had the third highest seasonal passing total in Pitt history); he has won at Pitt by emphasizing the running game (Craig Heyward with 1,791 yards in 1987 had the second highest season rushing total in Pitt history); and he has won at Pitt by featuring a more balanced offense (Pitt averaged 253 yards per game rushing and 161 yards per game passing last year).

But despite his reputation for grooming offenses, Gottfried knows that the defensive side of the ball is just as important. That is why in each of his first three seasons, his defensive troops have statistically been ranked among the Top 10 in the country.

Just as important as Gottfried's mastery of x's and o's is the fact that his players recognize his leadership.

"Playing for Coach Gottfried gives you the enthusiasm to win because he's such a great competitor," says All-American center candidate Dean Caliguire. "He has a good football mind, but I think he looks out for us off the field more than the average college coach does."

"Coach Gottfried has shown me that a lot of the game is played upstairs and he has taught me how to understand the game," says tailback Curvin Richards, UPI and The Sporting News Freshman of the Year. "As a person, he's a friend to us all."

"Coach Gottfried wants all of us to become great players and reach our goals on the field,"

says strong safety Dan Crossman. "But more important, he wants us to become good people in everyday walks of life."

Gottfried's progression from quarterback at Morehead State to high school and college coach to coaching at Pitt has been a rapid one. He started coaching at Norwalk (Ohio) St. Paul High School in 1967.

He was a high school coach in his native Ohio for seven years before moving on to become offensive coordinator at Youngstown State University in 1974. That year, he helped YSU to an 8-1 record and the NCAA Division II playoffs.

Gottfried was the offensive backfield coach at the University of Cincinnati in 1975 and 1976. He held a similar position at the University of Arizona in 1977.

In 1978, Murray State afforded Gottfried his first collegiate head coaching opportunity. He compiled a 22-11-1 record in three seasons there.

He returned to Cincinnati as head coach in 1981 and guided the Bearcats — who had won only two of 11 games for two consecutive years — to back-to-back 6-5 marks. This was despite having a schedule that included Pitt, Penn State, Florida State, South Carolina, Alabama and Miami of Florida.

Gottfried was named head coach at Kansas in 1983. Despite inheriting a team that finished 2-7-2 the previous year, Gottfried coached the Jayhawks to a 4-6-1 record.

In 1984, he was selected the Associated Press Big Eight Coach of the Year, leading Kansas to a 5-6 mark and a victory over Oklahoma, then ranked No. 2 in the nation. Kansas was 6-6 in Gottfried's final season there, before he traveled east to Pitt.

"I really feel good about Pittsburgh, the people and the city," Gottfried said. "I'm going to keep working hard to put this program back where it belongs: where each year we have a chance to win, a chance to compete in a bowl."

game, a chance to be in the Top 20, and, occasionally, a chance to compete for the national title."

Gottfried's influence has gone far beyond the football field. He has made academics a cornerstone of the Panther football program. His football camp was one of the first such summer camps to feature sessions aimed at high school students in regards to the SAT test. Gottfried does not accept anything less than maximum effort in the classroom.

"We're not going to hand a kid his eligibility, no matter how good he is," he promises.

Gottfried also eagerly devotes himself to community service — the Special Olympics, Fellowship of Christian Athletes and other charitable functions.

He has convictions he has clung to even when the practical course of action may have been to compromise. Gottfried has authored an article for the New York Times, appeared on network television, and testified before the Pennsylvania legislature, decrying the role of unscrupulous sports agents in college athletics. Pennsylvania has now passed a law attempting to regulate this group.

Mike Gottfried has another conviction, too: A conviction, rooted in his traditional working-class upbringing, that hard work and dedication can overcome many obstacles.

A few years ago, a sophomore walk-on on the Pitt team was in a financial predicament and close to dropping out of school. He was not athletically talented enough to receive a grant-in-aid, but Gottfried nonetheless gave him one.

"I don't know that you'll ever play a down here," he told the young man. "I'll tell you how you can pay me back. Study hard. Practice hard. Graduate. Be a good person."

Strong safety Anthony Jagers from Cleveland, Ohio, is a senior now. He hasn't recorded a single tackle during his Panther career. But he will graduate this spring.

Typical Mike Gottfried.

Coaching Experience: High School — Norwalk (Ohio) St. Paul, 1967-70, head coach; Struthers (Ohio), 1972-73, head coach. Collegiate — Morehead State, 1971, defensive backfield coach; Youngstown State, 1974, offensive coordinator; Cincinnati, 1975-76, offensive backfield coach; Arizona, 1977, offensive backfield coach; Murray State, 1978-80, head coach; Cincinnati, 1981-82, head coach; Kansas, 1983-85, head coach; University of Pittsburgh, 1986, head coach.

Personal Information (Date of Birth: 12/17/44) Hometown: Crestline, Ohio. Alma Mater: Morehead State '66. Married to the former Michaelene (Mickey) Rosandic and the father of Mindy (19) and Marcy (17).

Assistant Coaches

Bob Valesente
Assistant Head Coach/
Defensive Coordinator

Valesente begins his 25th season coaching football, and is considered a shrewd defensive strategist.

Valesente's coaching philosophy after working as his assistant head coach and quarterback coach.

Valesente played football (halfback) and baseball (catcher/outfielder) for four years at Ithaca College. He led the school to the College World Series in baseball in 1962 and was drafted by the New York Yankees. He was drafted by the Yankees in 1962, but he never played for them. He was drafted by the Yankees in 1962, but he never played for them. He was drafted by the Yankees in 1962, but he never played for them.

There is no doubt that the future of the world is in the hands of the young. It is a new world, a new world of great hopes and great dangers. It is a world in which the young must take the lead. It is a world in which the young must be the first to see the light and the first to follow it. It is a world in which the young must be the first to stand up for the right and the first to fight for the good. It is a world in which the young must be the first to see the future and the first to build it. It is a world in which the young must be the first to see the truth and the first to live by it. It is a world in which the young must be the first to see the beauty and the first to love it. It is a world in which the young must be the first to see the power and the first to use it. It is a world in which the young must be the first to see the glory and the first to share it. It is a world in which the young must be the first to see the life and the first to give it. It is a world in which the young must be the first to see the love and the first to show it. It is a world in which the young must be the first to see the peace and the first to bring it. On the positive side, a 2001 study examined how much time a 16-year-old child spent on the computer each week and whether the time was spent on Facebook or MySpace. The researchers found that the more time a child spent on Facebook, the more likely they were to have a positive attitude toward the site. Conversely, the more time a child spent on MySpace, the more likely they were to have a negative attitude toward the site.

group of defective ticks in the country than John Spindler. Tom Sims, Tony Stragone and Jeff Eiders. Stragone, a younger fellow not out long enough to make a name for himself, has an enviable combination of quickness and brio. It is performance in the spring you longed for. He can't sustain the firm chase and blin one of his nation's most promising defensive ticks as a sophomore. Spindler, who's also coming of knee surgery, is simply a one of the best of the breed.

explored into a rugged force last year, his first with the Panthers after transferring from West Michigan. He led the team in sacks (37), and was the best individual performer on the defense, with 10 interceptions.

He's political, but he'll do it for you.
He's got a lot of experience.
He's got a lot of money.
He's got a lot of power.
He's got a lot of influence.
He's got a lot of friends.
He's got a lot of enemies.
He's got a lot of secrets.
He's got a lot of lies.
He's got a lot of truth.

Coach Skip Panko. Henry is a creature who may not look as fast as he really is. He has deceiving speed. He reminds me of Jerry Rice that way because a lot of people thought Jerry Rice didn't have a whole lot of speed, but any time someone tried to catch him, they couldn't do it. He had moves people didn't think he had and he of course always had the ability to find the open area, go open, catch the ball, and make the big play in crucial situations. Henry has those same talents. He has tremendous moves in the open field, the kind of moves that can make people miss him.

It is important to note that the above results are based on the assumption that the data are normally distributed. If the data are not normally distributed, the results may be biased. Therefore, it is important to check the normality of the data before using the above methods.

BOSTON COLLEGE 34
PITT 31

CRISTFUT HILL, MA (October 1)— Boston College pulled from a 7-19 deficit late in the fourth quarter by scoring twice in the final six minutes to defeat Pitt 34-31 before a crowd of 32,000 at the stadium.

The Panthers controlled the tempo throughout most of the game and, when Darrell Dickerson rushed for 100 yards, it seemed as if the Panthers would easily Pitt further in the final six minutes allowed the Eagles to come back.

The game marred a brilliant performance by Boston College's quarterback, Mike Power, who threw into action when starter Adam Walley injured his right ankle on Pitt's second offensive play. Richards rushed for 302 yards, becoming the eighth Pitt player to top the 200-yard rushing mark. It also was the third-highest total ever by a Pitt freshman (Tony Dorsett rushed for 365 and 333-yard run in the third period was the fifth-highest in school history).

a 70-degree spin to elude several defenders on his way to the goal line.

Eagles quarterback Mike Power, however, threw touchdown passes of 23 and 8 yards—the school's longest pass since 1960—before the game BC a 32-31 lead. Fullback Ed Tuten powered up the Eagles' offense with a 64-yard run in the fourth quarter.

Pitt's defense, however, was unable to stop BC's offense from scoring again in the fourth quarter.

Raleigh, NC (November 19)—The Panthers' first game of the opening drive that netted its only points of the game. The Panthers defeated North Carolina State, 14-3, before a crowd of 39,306 at Carter-Finley Stadium.

The loss snapped Pitt's four-game winning streak and also shattered any chance for a bowl bid.

The Wolfpack managed only 273 yards in total offense—165 under their average—penalties including seven offensive holding infractions.

Freshman tailback Curran Richards, who entered the game as the seventh-leading rusher in the nation with an average of 120.2 ypg., was held to 65 yards on 19 carries. The Wolfpack also stopped his string of four consecutive 100-yard

The Ed Conway Memorial Award

Ed Conway, the "Voice of Pitt Football" for 20 years, was a sportscaster in Pittsburgh before his death in 1974. He was an honest, hard working professional, and above all, a friend.

The award is presented annually to the most improved offensive and defensive players each spring.

Temple Game Notes:

Philadelphia over the Panthers defeated the Eagles, 27-10. The Panthers gained a record 100 yards in the first half, a season low 90 yards in the second half. Temple's defensive coordinator and assistant coach, Mike Cavanaugh, led the team against the Eagles, including a coaching stint at Cincinnati. Panther cornerback Antonio Thompson had the biggest pass interception for no score against the Eagles last year, a 16-yarder.

It would be an error to think that the best way to deal with the problem of the future is to wait until the future has arrived and then to deal with it. The future is not a static entity, but a dynamic one, and it is always changing. Therefore, the best way to deal with the future is to be prepared for it, and to be able to adapt to it when it comes.

Pitt Players in the NFL

During the 1980s, few schools—if any—can match the number of quality players the University of Pittsburgh has forwarded to the National Football League.

Of course, Pittsburgh for decades has been a fertile talent source for the NFL, both for players and coaches. Standouts such as Marshall Goldberg, Jack Sutherland, Ike Schmidt, Joe Walton, and Mike Anderson are a few of the many former Panthers who have gained fame in the NFL.

But in the past 10 years (1980-89), there has been a dramatic surge of top Pitt-born talent in the NFL. Currently (for instance) three Pitt men are NFL head coaches: Mike Anderson (Bronx), Walton (New York Jets), and Schoenberger (first with the Cleveland Browns, presently with the Kansas City Chiefs). And at the start of training camps this summer, there were 42 former Panthers on NFL rosters, placing Pitt in the top 10 of player representation in the NFL. That figure includes an impressive total of 14 Pitt players who have been chosen in the first round of the NFL's college draft during the past decade. In that same time span, only USC (with 16) has had more first-round picks.

Probably no school, though, can match the kind of overall impact Pitt's recent NFL players have made. Of Pitt's 12 first-round picks from 1980-88, 10 became starters as rookies, 42 percent. Seven of those players eventually reached the All-NFL Pro Bowl.

According to research compiled by The Pittsburgh Press, 36 percent of NFL's 1988 first-round picks became starters as rookies. Also, three other major college powers, Oklahoma, Miami, and Penn State, each had 10 first-round draft picks during that same time span. But only Miami's players started as rookies, and Penn State's rookies became starters at 16 percent of Oklahoma's players.)

The great Pitt teams of the late 1970s and early 1980s began providing this marketplace of unique talent to the NFL. Heisman Trophy winner back Tony Dorsett started the stream when all three of his brothers followed him.

On the defensive side, the great back of the 1977 draft, A year later a pair of Dursett teammates on Pitt's 1978 national championship team, defensive end Randy Holloway (a Minnesota Vikings first-round pick, and quarterback Matt Cavanaugh (second round by the New England Patriots) joined Dorsett in the NFL.

The 1980 season (1981-82) provided another rich haul of former professional talent. The 1980 season, in particular, was blessed with an extraordinary number of former NFL stars.

With 11 players on the 1980 Pitt 49ers' squad, including three first-round picks, defensive end Hugh Green (Tampa Bay Buccaneers), tackle Mark May (Washington Redskins), and running back Randy McAllen (Baltimore Colts). Defensive end Rickey Jackson (second round, New Orleans Saints), guard Russ Grimm (third round, Washington Redskins), safety Carlton Williamson (third round, San Francisco 49ers), defensive tackle Greg Meiner (third round, Los Angeles Rams), cornerback Lynn Thomas (fifth round, San Francisco 49ers), tight NFL talent scouts echo one another when they talk about Pitt.

"Pitt is a national commodity," says Joe Woolley, director of personnel for the San Diego Chargers. "You hardly see any failures here. Not only do they make it, but they become the players everyone expects. There is no one who seems to have the right work ethic and a high IQ."

There is no question the kids from Pitt could really do play in the National Football League, says John Butler, the director of college scouting for the Buffalo Bills.

"I think it is probably true that the kids at Pitt are a little more adaptive to the NFL than kids from most other schools," says Joe Woolley, director of personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles. "Pitt recruits outstanding athletes, then teaches them pro techniques and uses a lot of pro schemes."

According to a pair of former Pitt greats, however, the skill in coaching is also part of the formula.

"I think the coaching is a definite more important factor in the success of the West, where Pennsylvania work ethic," says Cover, who was named the NFL's Defensive Lineman of the Year in 1986. "You work as hard as you possibly can and then you work a little bit more."

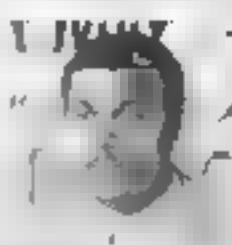

says John Williams, selected the Defensive Lineman of the Year in 1988. "I think it is the coaching that gets you a step ahead of everybody else. I know, he coaches (in

Panthers in the Super Bowl

The Super Bowl is without doubt the biggest annual one-day event in American sports. A number of former Pitt players have played (and coached) in the Super Bowl, and many wear the ring of victory in fact at least one Pitt alumnus has been associated with the winning team in each of the last eight Super Bowls.

Williamson added a third Super Bowl ring to his collection this past season as a member of the NFL's Dallas Cowboys. The former Pitt alumnus is reportedly his team's highest-paid player. Williamson also earned rings in Super Bowls XVI and XXV, two other former Panthers. Russ Grimm and Mark May have appeared on the coveted prize more than once. Grimm and May both received rings for the Washington Redskins' triumphs in Super although close was controlled by Stanford. Pitt grabbed a 6-0 third-quarter lead when Jimmy Hagan scooped up a Cardinal fumble and ran 30 yards for a touchdown. The extra point was missed. Stanford, which made several marauds deep into Pitt territory, finally scored on an unusual play. On fourth-and-goal at the two, Stanford quarterback Ruf Hofman completed a pass to Bob Sims, but it was short of the goal. The game was tied 6-6 at the end of the third quarter. On the next play, Hofman picked up the loose ball and carried it in to tie the game. Hofman's extra point won it. The Pitt, a slight favorite entering the game, mustered 2-0 in its first game in the Rose Bowl.

28-yard score, capitalizing on a Pitt fumble. Another fumble led to USC's third touchdown in the first quarter.

Jesus set up the Trojans' next score when Jesse Mortensen and Jesse Hill gained for a 5-yard pass play. Russell Saunders helped convert a 15c interception into a 13-0 lead with his 3-yard scoring run. Pitt finally broke through in the third quarter when Clark threw a 28-yard pass to William Wallinthus. Southern Cal sandwiched two more long touchdown passes (18 and 62 yards) around a Tony Parkington-to Phil Collins 16-yard TD pass for Pitt to arrive at the final score. In all, the Trojans scored the most points in the game, 47-14. The game was also the last at Pitt. The worst would come three years later, also against USC, in the Rose Bowl.

Pitt's coach, John B. "Jack" Sutherland, would try a new play after two Rose Bowl losses, so he took the team to Tucson to practice for its first Rose Bowl win. Sutherland suffered the worst loss in his Pitt career. It was the first after 1928 that Pitt was shut out and actually lost the game. It had played four scoreless ties since a 0-0 loss to Carnegie Tech. With $3,000 in attendance, the Panthers stayed close.

The Trojans' three and four caught a touchdown pass as the Trojans built a 4-0 lead through three quarters. After Irvine Washington scored to make the score 7-0, Pitt's Paul Collins and Walburn scored again shortly thereafter. A blocked punt set up the final touchdown. Several Panthers were singled out by the Trojans with standing ovations: ends Ted Hurley and Joe Skladany, guard Charles Hartwig, and back Warren Miller, who rushed for 63 yards in the final quarter.

yards for the touchdown. First for a diving tackle set up Patrick's touchdown. Pitt led, 14-0, after three quarters. The defense added a late touchdown, converting an interception. So stated was Sutherland that he substituted every player who made the trip, so each could forever relate the experience of playing in a Rose Bowl victory. After four tries, the coach had finally overcome one of the few obstacles in his life: the

Pitt on Radio

The 1989 college football season marks a new direction in Panther football on radio with the addition of nationally televised broadcast sports syndicator Host Communications Inc., of Lexington, KY. The University of Pittsburgh and Host Communications have an agreement which permits Host Communications to construct a national radio network for the purpose of broadcasting all Panther football games. The Pittsburgh affiliate, WTAE AM, will serve as the network flagship station and will be the origination point for the game broadcasts which will be distributed to approximately 30 stations in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, and New Jersey. Stations currently affiliated with the network include:

WTAE radio coverage will begin approximately one hour prior to kickoff and will continue live throughout the day, covering a full day of college football with Pitt and WTAE.

WTAE TV (Channel 4 in Pittsburgh) will air a pre-season special, "Panther Pride '89," featuring Coach Mike Gottfried on Friday, September 1, from 9-10 pm. WTAE will show three in-season specials on Monday, September 25 (8:30-9:00 pm), Monday, October 23 (8:30-9:00 pm), and Monday, November 27 (8:30-9:00 pm) and follow up with a season wrap-up special in December.

The Pitt radio broadcast team is comprised of Bill Hillgrove and Johnny Sauer. The duo is in their 14th year as a team and gives Pitt one of the top broadcasting teams in college football.

Hillgrove has been the "voice of the Panthers" on football broadcasts for over 15 years and has been a member of the broadcast team for over 20 seasons. A well-known Pittsburgh sports personality, Hillgrove has been WTAE-TV's Sports Director since 1979 and has served as Pitt ambassador of good will. He supports all Pitt athletic teams, attends Golden Panthers functions, and emcees numerous events around the city.

Sauer puts his impressive college football background to good use on the air. Sauer, who played on Army's tremendous 1945 team featuring Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard, coached at The Citadel and led the College All-Stars against the NFL Champion Green Bay Packers in 1966 and 1967. Sauer broadcast NFL football on CBS for 2 seasons and has been a member of the broadcast team since 1974, although he has missed two seasons.

Hillgrove and Sauer will join together for the post-game show which features a locker room report with Mike Gottfried, updated scores and reports from across the country, and an analysis of that day's game and future opponents.

Heisman

Tony Dorsett in 1976 became the only player in Pitt football history to win the Heisman Trophy, awarded annually by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York to the best college football player in the nation.

Dorsett, however, is not the only Panther to figure prominently in the voting. In fact, a Put player finished in the Top 10 of the Heunant Trophy voting in nine of the past 13 years.

Dorsett also placed fourth in 1979 before winning a year later. He rushed for 2,150 yards in 12 games in his winning season. Since then, Matt Cavanaugh (seventh, 1977), Dan Marino (fourth, 1981; fourth 1982) and Craig Heyward (fifth, 1987) have done well among players at conventional Heisman positions. Cavanaugh and Marino are quarterbacks, Heyward a running back.

Two Panthers at less conventional positions have made history in his decade. Hugh Green, a defensive end, finished second to George Rogers in 1984. No defensive player has won the award since Leron Smith in 1949, and Green has the second best vote total ever among defensive linemen. Offensive tackle Bill Fralic also created a first, and of course no men have ever played in the NFL twice. Fralic was eighth in 1983 and sixth in 1984. His outcome is even more notable considering that no offensive lineman has ever won, and only two others have finished higher than Fralic in the last 15 years.

But Full success in the Heisman is not just a modern phenomenon. Marshall Goldberg earned third- and second-place finishes in 1937 and 1938, respectively. Edgar (Special Delivery) Jones finished seventh in 1941 and 1960. Mike Ditka garnered a sixth-place standing.

Findings

Figure 6 shows the effect of the initial concentration of the monomer on the polymerization rate. The rate increases with increasing initial concentration of the monomer. This is due to the fact that the higher the initial concentration of the monomer, the more active species are present in the system.

Director of Athletics

Ed Hawk has been the Director of Athletics at the University of Pittsburgh since September 1, 1982. Prior to this, he served seven years as the Executive Assistant to President Wesley W. Wren.

The Department of Athletics under Dr. Hawk is dedicated to the goal of providing an improved academic performance of all student athletes competing to be the first priority, and the efficient operation and resources dedicated to this goal have proved substantial dividends.

Since 1982, substantial improvements in the athletic facilities have been completed, and new ventures are currently underway. These improvements include the $10 million Charles L. Cow Indoor Sports Center (to be completed in 1990), the $2 million Athletics Center (now in progress) and the more than $4.7 million in stadium renovations, including permanent stadium lights, new turf, a substantially larger football weight room, a sports-medicine center and a football and soccer grass practice field; nearly $5 million in continued renovations of Fitzgerald Field House, including new offices, a players' lounge, a new track and field building, a new weight room, an outdoor tennis courts, baseball field, swimming pool and gymnasium renovations, and even patented football, basketball and academic support service operations. Additional new projects of more than $3.4 million to be completed, will include football locker room renovations with audio-visual and meeting facilities, construction of a video room studio and computerization of the fund raising and ticket offices. Plans for a new baseball stadium are also being considered.

The overall athletic program has received awards in 1985. Pitt athletics have earned two Big East Scholar-Athlete of the Year awards and the Big East Coach of the Year award. The men's basketball team earned position tournament bids the last five years, including the NCAA tournament in 1984.

The women's basketball team had an overall winning record, appearing in three post-season bowl games during that time. The men's basketball team earned position tournament bids the last five years, including the NCAA tournament in 1984. The women's basketball team has won the Big East Championship in 1984, 1985 and 1986. The women's basketball team has won the Big East Championship in 1984, 1985 and 1986. The women's basketball team has won the Big East Championship in 1984, 1985 and 1986.

The University of Pittsburgh has had three Olympians since 1962, including Roger Kingdom, a two-time gold medalist in the 110-meter high hurdles; Charles Smith, a forward on the 1984 men's basketball team that captured a bronze medal; and woman, Sue Krum, who finished fourth in the 100-meter dash at the 1984 Olympics.

Since 1982 substantial improvements in the athletic facilities have been completed, and new ventures are currently underway. These improvements include the $10 million Charles L. Cow Indoor Sports Center (to be completed in 1990), the $2 million Athletics Center (now in progress) and the more than $4.7 million in stadium renovations, including permanent stadium lights, new turf, a substantially larger football weight room, a sports-medicine center and a football and soccer grass practice field; nearly $5 million in continued renovations of Fitzgerald Field House, including new offices, a players' lounge, a new track and field building, a new weight room, an outdoor tennis courts, baseball field, swimming pool and gymnasium renovations, and even patented football, basketball and academic support service operations. Additional new projects of more than $3.4 million to be completed, will include football locker room renovations with audio-visual and meeting facilities, construction of a video room studio and computerization of the fund raising and ticket offices. Plans for a new baseball stadium are also being considered.

The overall athletic program has received awards in 1985. Pitt athletics have earned two Big East Scholar-Athlete of the Year awards and the Big East Coach of the Year award. The men's basketball team earned position tournament bids the last five years, including the NCAA tournament in 1984. The women's basketball team had an overall winning record, appearing in three post-season bowl games during that time. Pitt's Varsity Sports Tradition

Pitt has a diverse and successful varsity athletics program featuring 19 team sports. And, while Pitt football has provided many great teams and athletes for a century, the University's other sports programs also have enjoyed great success in Division One competition and, more recently, in the Big East Conference.

With one of the elite athletics programs in the country, Pitt athletes and teams are a continuing source of esteem to the University.

Men's basketball, which first emerged at Pitt in 1900, had its first great success under Dr. H.C. Brown in 1927-28, capturing the national title. Pitt captured its first "official" national title in 1927-28 and finished the season with a 28-2 record.

The 1927-28 season was the most successful of the modern era. Under Head Coach Charles "Burr" Rick, the Panthers compiled a 22-game winning streak. He topped in Pitt history, Billy Knight was an All-American forward and later became Pitt's first All-Pro basketball player with the Indiana Pacers.

Pitt basketball instantly gained in national prominence in 1932 when it joined the Big East Conference. Charles Smith, who became Pitt's all-time leading scorer and rebounding phenom, Jerome Lane helped lead the team to new heights, including two regular-season Big East championships and two consecutive NCAA tournament appearances.

This past season, the Panthers qualified for their third consecutive NCAA Tournament and recorded upset victories over four different teams ranked in the Top 10 at the time of the Pitt game: Syracuse (No. 2), Oklahoma (No. 3), Scranton (No. 9), and Georgetown (No. 2).

Brian Stelter was selected the Big East Rookie of the Year and first-team All-Conference. Jason Murlew was named third-team All-Conference.

Women's basketball began at Pitt in 1916, and the 1924-25 team completed its 18-game schedule undefeated. But the program was disbanded after supporter of Pitt athletics was a member of the Lady Panther basketball team during its last simple seasons and participated in several international sports.

Pitt's basketball program was resurrected in 1962, capturing its first Big East championship and placing nine teams in the tournament.

Head Coach Kirk Bruce, who was named 1985 continues to guide the Lady Panthers. Each year under Bruce, the team has shown steady improvement, and with all of Bruce's recruits from the 1980-81 season, the team has its original core.

Baseball is the university's oldest sport, dating back to 1869. Head Coach Bob Lewis has been a fixture with the baseball program for nearly 40 years—10 as a player and 35 as the Panthers coach.

Lewis has compiled a 430-162 record during his tenure as head coach and coached a number of great athletes, including George "Doc" Medich (1969) and Ken Macha (1970-71), both of whom played in the major leagues, and two baseball All-Americans: shortstop George Schoepfner and center fielder Fred Mazurek.

Two modern-day players currently in the major-league farm system are catcher Chris Jelic (New York Mets) and Frank Meneghano (Chicago White Sox).

Men's gymnastics began at Pitt in 1953 under Coach Warren Meyer and has had its share of accomplishment in its 33-year history. The most successful coach was Coach Frank D'Amico, who won the 1957 and 1958 rings competition. He also served as captain of the 1957-58 national champion, who won the 1957 and 1958 rings competition. Just last season, the Panthers finished with an 11-5 record and Jorge Gonzalez qualified for the NCAA's for the second consecutive year as the program's most successful athlete.

The women's gymnastics program joined the athletics department in 1974, but was part of the university sports scene since 1970, when it was a part of the physical education department. Donna Scott, who was a standout gymnast, was the Lady Panthers' first head coach and quickly built the team into a highly competitive unit.

In 14 years, eight Pitt women gymnasts earned All-American and All-East honors. Scott's 1978-79 team finished the season ranked in the Top 10 nationally. In 1982, Lisa Smith became the first Pitt female gymnast to win a national championship, capturing the uneven bars.

Current Head Coach Debbie Yohman, named to her position in 1986. Last season, the team had three ECAC All-Conference performers: Jennifer Burlewski, Jeanne Trebbio, and Tina

Men's swimming dates back to 1914, when Coach John T. Taylor, who began Pitt's first swimming tradition. Pitt has produced three individual All-Americans: Stu Swanson, Jerry DeMuro, and Pat Greenwell, and several Eastern Champions. Perhaps the most famous swimmer at Pitt was former broadcasting legend Bob

Last season, the Panthers completed one of their best campaigns in recent years and won four national titles. The 400-yard freestyle relay team of Mike Kodina, Tim Adams, Bill Folger, and Scott Elfrink earned honorable mention All-American honors by finishing 16th in the NCAA's. Diver John Sharkey and Vernon Yerkuk also competed in the 1985-86 season.

Pitt has had 4 women swimming All-Americans, including one of the All-Americans, one national champion (Kathy Stetter 50-meter butterfly in 1978), and three Olympians (most recently Sue Dean, who represented the U.S.A. in the 1984 Olympic Games). The 1985-86 season was the most successful of the modern era. Under Head Coach Charles "Burr" Rick, the Panthers compiled a 22-game winning streak. He topped in Pitt history, Billy Knight was an All-American forward and later became Pitt's first All-Pro basketball player with the Indiana Pacers.

The men's tennis program began at Pitt in the early 1900s. The peak years for the program occurred in the mid 1920s with perhaps the most successful season in 1925, when the Panthers finished with a 13-0 record. The Panthers dominated opponents, rarely allowing even a single individual victory. Eddie Jacobs, who played in the late 1920s, was a three-time Davis Cup selection.

Current Men's and Women's Head Coach George Blitlenbach played on Pitt's outstanding 1973 squad, which finished 2-2 after losing a

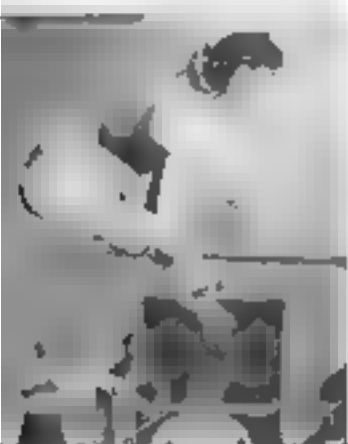

Last season, the men had an 11-5 record while the women's team was 7-6. George Blitlenbach was selected for the Blue-Gold Award and received a Big East postgraduate scholarship. Both Blitlenbachs should benefit from the construction of the Charles E. Smith Sports Center, which will provide facilities which is scheduled for completion in the spring of 1990.

Some of Pitt's greatest athletes have been produced by the track and field program. Track at Pitt dates back to the early 1900s after was probably brought more national glory to the University than any other sport, except for football.

The Panthers' surge to national prominence really began when Olympian Frank Shea began coaching in 1923. Since then Pitt has won a number of performers in the Olympics. John Woodruff was Pitt's first gold medalist when he won the 400-meter run at the 1936 Olympic Games in Berlin. Germany's other Olympians from Pitt included pole vaulter Vince Pickard (1924), silver medal long jumper Herb Douglas (1936), 800-meter runner Annie Sowell (1958), and long jumper Bill Rea (1960).

Current Head Coach John Vasvary, who began his coaching career at Pitt, has been successful in developing great performers such as two-time Olympic gold medalist Roger Kingdom (10-meter hurdles) and Lee McKee, who won four NCAA titles in the 100-meter dash, 200-meter dash, 400-meter dash, and 800-meter dash.

Promoting the Panthers

In the past two decades, a number of prominent Panthers have won All-America honors and college football awards. Pictured on this page are a few examples of some of the spirited and light-hearted promotional materials produced by the Pitt Athletic Department to support the on-field efforts of some of Pitt's finest.
